Day 2: Jogjakarta - Bali (B, L)

Breakfast at the hotel. Start your day discovering the Borobudur temple - the biggest Buddhist in the world. This is a famous temple dating from 8th and 9th century and was given a status of "World of Heritage" by UNESCO in 1991. It was built in three tiers all symbolizing the human being's stages. The base is a pyramidal base with 5 concentric squares terraces-the symbol of human being that are still bound by lust. The middle four terraces symbolizing human beings that have set themselves free from lust but are still bound to appearance and shape. On this terrace, Buddha effigies are placed in open space, while the other upper three terraces where Buddha effigies are confined in domes with wholes, symbolizing human beings that have been free from lust, appearance and shape. The top part that is monumental sputa symbolizes nirvana, where Buddha is residing. The walls are decorated with nearly 1500 fine narrative relief's panels, covering a total surface area of 2,500 square meters.

Continue your morning touring to Kartono and visit the Sultan's Palace dating back to the 17th century. An active Palace that is defined as the center of the world where the culture and political heart of the city takes place in this walled royal enclave.
