Mission Hills Phuket Golf Resort

Mission Hills is the only course in Phuket on the sea front and such, its layout offers stunning vistas of the Andaman Sea from several holes. The course creates a sense of fun and excitement while testing the accuracy of each player with several peculiar features along the layout; hole 18 sets up several options of play from the tee with 2 greens, allowing you to choose an alternative end to your game, while the greens for holes 2 and 5 sit alongside each other on the same island in one of the many water features. The convenient location, luxurious facilities and championship golf, all combine to make Mission Hills a sought-after, world-class golf destination.

Being in the only course in Phuket on the sea front, its layout offers stunning views of the Andaman Sea from several holes. This course creates a enjoyment and excitement while testing the accuracy, skill and strength of each player with 2 greens, allowing them to choose an alternative end to the game, while the greens for holes 2 and 5 sit alongside each other on the same island in one of the many water features. This convenient location, world class facilities and golf course amalgamate to make Mission Hills a highly sought-after, world class golf destination.

If you are searching for a golf course which has the closest resemblance to a sea facing picture postcard golf course in Phuket, the Mission Hills Golf Resort in Phuket is undoubtedly the one to play in. The golf course is situated among mangrove forests. The course has an extraordinary ocean views from almost every hole and it includes several ocean holes playing out over the Andaman Sea like you sometimes see on the televised PGA tournaments.
