Although the views are not dramatic, the course is absolutely thrilling with quality of its strong design. This course is a tried and tested championship course having hosted multiple professional tournaments like the Volvo Masters Asia.

Day 3 : Bangkok (Breakfast)

Play at one of the newest and most exciting addition to the Bangkok golf scene, the Nikanti Golf Club. Featuring a rare design, the course comprises three 6-hole layouts rather than the traditional front and back 9. Over 18-holes, instead of the conventional four par 3s and four 5s, there are instead six par 3s and six par 5s, lending the additional drama and excitement. With mounds and elevation changes that extend into its fast greens, this course is challenging and memorable.

Day 4 : Departure from Bangkok (Breakfast)

'Save the best for last' with a round at the fantastic Alpine Golf Club. Consistently ranked amongst Thailand's finest, the course was created from flat rice paddy fields into its present undulating layout of rolling hills, lakes and well-placed bunkers. The Alpine Golf Club has an interesting mix of memorable holes like the stunning 12th Hole par 3, flanked entirely by an extensive beach bunker around a contoured green. Tiger Woods captured the 2000 Johnnie Walker Classic title at this fantastic venue.
