* 4 Days 3 Nights 3 Rounds Yangon Golf * (Stupa Package)

Day 1: Arrival to Yangon

Arrive in Yangon airport, your tour guide will meet and welcome you. You will be transferred to Yangon Golf Club and tee-off for your arrival game at this one of the oldest golf clubs in Myanmar. The British established this club in 1909 by an unknown designer. However, the club has transited ages till today and is frequently maintained to give golfers greater experience. Many holes have been changed and several water reservoirs have been extended and constructed to continue the course survival through the harsh weather. Now, it can be played with reasonable conditions all year round.

After golf, you may consider take up an optional tour – Tour of Yangon (A Program). The tour covers visit to the famous Chauk Htat Kyi, home to a 70-meter long Reclining Buddha. The feet of the statue are sculptured with customary signs and many locals usually meet to pay respects and pray. Follow by a photo-stop at the Karaweik Hall royal floating barge. Continue to the main highlight of the tour – Shwedagon Pagoda and bear witness to its sparkling stupa and appreciate the stunning sunset view at Shwedagon Pagoda. After tour, proceed to your hotel and check in for a 2 nights stay.

Day 2: Yangon (Breakfast)

This morning, get ready to enjoy your 2nd round of golf game in Pan Hlaing Golf Club. Located in the northwest of Yangon city, only 8 miles away from the city centre, the Pan Hlaing Golf club features an 18-hole, 7,012 yards golf course beautifully designed by the legendary Gary Player. The 7,012 yard championship course is fun for every golfer from different level of skill. Many fairways have rivers and lakes next to them making every round an unbeatably exciting challenge. Yet, the fairways are wide enough for players to golf without too much pressure. The course offers panoramic views of the city and the world-famous Shwedagon Pagoda.

After golf, you may consider take up another optional tour – Tour of Yangon (B Program). Drive through and discover the city center and its fantastic blend of architecture and sites. Historical buildings occupied the streets and many have a taste of the colonial attraction which cannot be found elsewhere in Asia. Start off at the Post Office- a beautiful historic building, passing by Strand Hotel, Mahabandoola Garden and Independence Monument along the way. Photo-stop at Sule Pagoda to snap some pictures, follow by visit the Scott Market, a bustling 75-year old Market to discover a wide range of Burmese souvenirs, from lacquer ware to gems & jewelry. Tours continue to the 100 year old beautiful Rangoon Synagogue where you will have the opportunity to meet the Trustee of Synagogue to learn the Jewish Life in Pagoda Land. Lastly, pop in for a visit in Little India and Chinatown to explore the interesting wares.

Day 3: Yangon (Breakfast)

Swing for your final round of golf in Yangon City Golf Club, consists of two 18-hole courses. The first 18 known as Silver (Ngwe Thaw Tar) was opened in 1994 spread over 7000 yards and the second 18 known as Pondi (Myakantha) was opened in 1996 spread over 6208 yards. Situated 40 minutes' drive north from downtown Yangon it was designed by Han Golf Master himself the Executive Chairman of the Asian Golf Tour. The two 18-hole courses are quite unique to each other. Silver is spread across a low flat plain with generous, wide fairways and greens and is fantastic for players of different skill levels.

Day 4: Departure from Yangon (Breakfast)
