About Mauritius Golf Courses

Avalon Golf Club

One of the newest courses built in Mauritius, the Avalon Golf Club is a rare 'in-land' championship course sculpted from a terrain of tea plantations and ravines. The natural contours and undulations of the course, coupled with exceptional bunkering and clever use of rivers make this a great course to play. Designed with the South-east trade winds in mind, all par 3s and 5s play in different directions ensuring varied conditions of play.
