Day 2 Dubrovnik (Breakfast)

At 0900hrs meet your local guide for a Dubrovnik 4 hours sightseeing tour. Dubbed the "Pearl of the Adriatic" beautiful Dubrovnik offers a wealth of attractions for visitors. Famous for its spectacular seafront location on the Dalmatian coast coupled with its evocative and historic old city center, Dubrovnik was founded in the 7th century and has enjoyed its greatest growth in the 15th and 16th centuries, a fact reflected in the impressive architecture and its designation as a UNESCO World Heritage Site home to Croatia's artistic and intellectual elite, Dubrovnik offers numerous cultural activities and festivals. Highlights of a visit include walking around its picturesque old streets and alleys while visiting such excellent attractions as its splendid cathedral and treasury, the broad Stradun pedestrian walkway, and its many fine old palaces and fortifications. Including visit to Franciscan monastery. The tour ends at 1300hrs.

Day 3 Dubrovnik (Breakfast)

At 1000hrs meet your English speaking local guide and be transferred to Konavle. Konavle has for centuries been renowned for the production of silk yarn, where it was used for the decoration of male and notably female national costumes. The production occurred in the rooms of the women every spring. Every woman of Konavle had to rear enough silkworms to produce her own yarn for her individual embroidery. Until marriage, she would produce enough embroidery for various occasions and circumstances, for a long time it would be her only accessory and identity card. Every embroidery has a unique language that describes its tailor, her cunning, wealth or hardship, and when she makes it a part of her costume it becomes part of her personality. The Konavle embroidery is worn around the chest and the sleeves, where jewelry is worn today and on the part of our body where we point with our finger when a person says „I“. The Konavle embroidery is an important part of the national costume of a small region and it has developed its own artistic language transforming into something more than simple decoration. Today the national costumes are slowly being abandoned, and the embroidery that we knit in our workshops is used for the production of applied and decorative items with the purpose of conserving the tradition. We produce our own silk yarn from the early spring to late fall until we have enough leaves on our trees to feed our silkworms.

Next up be transferred to Cavtat. You will have a short walking tour of Cavtat with your local guide. The picture perfect village of Cavtat, Croatia's southernmost town, a short drive from the Konavle plains and Montenegro. In ancient Greek times Cavtat was known as the town of Epidaurus. When the Romans came in 228BC, it became a Roman colony. It's easy to see why the Greeks and Romans were so charmed by this lovely place. It's naturally protected by a rocky headland that still has remnants of an old fort. The town itself is a delight – there is a small "Old Town" with cobbled streets and alleys that meet the palm tree lined promenade that winds its way around the harbor. The tour ends in the afternoon then return to Dubrovnik.
