Day 1

Arrival in Bali

(No Meal)

Upon arrival, transfer direct to New Kuta Golf for your first 18 holes round. Bali's spectacular answer to links styled golf, New Kuta can be said to be a signature course, one where the Asian Tour found fit to host the 2009 Indonesian Open. It's never over till the fat lady sings, and a good round going doesn't mean a good score until you safely navigate the cliff-treacherous and windswept final trio of holes 16, 17, and 18. We hear an afternoon tee off is best for a breathtakingly unforgettable finish set against a kaleidoscopic Balinese sunset. After golf, proceed for hotel check-in followed by a free and easy evening.

Day 2

Bali

(Breakfast)

This morning, proceed for golf at the Bali National Golf Club in Nusa Dua. This Hawaiian-styled golf course starts out through a lush tropical forest set on hilly parkland, while the back nine plays over more level land that is a spectacular presentation of landscaped coconut groves and man-made lakes. The final two holes calls for a golfer's best; the signature 17th hole, an island green reminiscent of the famed 17th at TPC Sawgrass, requires surgical precision to avoid a watery grave. What follows on the final tee is a dogleg par 4 that finishes with the golfer putting out in full view of clubhouse spectators.

Day 3
