Day 1 Arrival in Hanoi

(No Meal)

Meet and greet on arrival at Hanoi Airport. Cap off your Hanoi golfing escapade with a game at the Hanoi Golf Club. Located at the base of scenic Ba Vi National Park, the course is strategically designed over a hectares of stunning rolling hillside terrain. At a lengthy 7,301 yards, this world-class championship golf course is both scenic and challenging with its undulating fairways and interesting layout. After golf, accommodation in Hanoi Old Quarter is recommended, a historical district of preserved shop-houses, markets, street food, art galleries, hip cafes, restaurants, and bars.

Day 2 Hanoi

(Breakfast)

Play a round at one of Hanoi's best-loved courses, the Long Bien Golf Course. Designed by renowned golf architects Nelson and Haworth, this 18-hole course runs alongside the Dong Nai River, in the heart of Hanoi. While the course doesn't play long, the deep fairway bunkers, rows of palm trees and the streams and lakes that meander through much of the course, create plenty of excitement.

Day 3 Hanoi

(Breakfast)

Play 18 holes at the Phoenix Golf Resort, one of Vietnam's largest golf facilities, which features 3 courses. The dramatic fairway and green undulations throughout this limestone forest will take your breath away. Enjoy the panoramic views of the Phoenix Course designed by renowned Ronald Fream. The Dragon Course has wider and friendlier fairways, while the Champion Course is the toughest 18-hole with its severe undulations and narrow fairways, and a myriad of water hazards that come into play.

Day 4 Hanoi

(Breakfast)

Gear up for final round of golf at the Sky Lake Resort & Golf Club, a premier golfing and lifestyle destination managed by IMG. There are two contrasting 18-hole PGA championship standard courses. The Sky Course which is open to the public for play capitalizes on the natural beauty of the landscape with subtle elevations, with generous fairways and greens. The Lake Course that is a members-only course weaves its way around the Van Son Lake and was rated the most challenging course by the Vietnam Golf Association in 2012.

Day 5 Departure from Hanoi
