Day 2 Busan

A Day Exploring Busan

In the morning, meet in hotel lobby for an exhilarating full day private tour of Busan.

Beomeosa Temple – walk along the foot of Geumjeongsan Mountain, the temple boasts a beautiful valley and outstanding mountains. Beomeosa Temple has many artifacts made of stone and is crowded all year around

Gamcheon Culture Village – a landmark of west Busan. Favored by tourists as an experience-based destination. Formed by houses built in staircase-fashion on the foothills of a coastal mountain, earning this village the nickname "Machu Picchu of Busan"

Jagalchi Fish Market – “Oiso (Come), Boiso (See), and Saiso (Buy)!” is a famous phrase that represents the Jagalchi Market, Korea’s largest seafood market, selling both live and dried fish, seafood, including big octopuses in basins and baskets of street vendors

BIFF Square – where film personalities left their mark on the ground. The Busan International Film Festival (BIFF) is held at the Busan Cinema Center of the Centum City and in the BIFF Square in Nampo-dong

Yongdusan Park – a leading landmark of Busan frequented by those who visit the region. The road to Yongdusan Park has an ascending slope, the trees cast a cool shade along the road, making it a pleasant walk to the entrance of the park

Gukje Market – is crowded and full of energy, items, and people. Gukje Market forms the “Original Mega Commercial District of Busan.” Recently, with the success of the movie “Ode to My Father,” which centers on Gukje Market, the place welcomed its second golden era
